Roi Thai

Restaurant - Klong Nin Beach

From Saladan town, if you take a spin to the south of the island, you will pass Klong Nin beach and the first thing that attract you is the 2 black of imageries, in garlands at their necks, colorful head. It looks like they are talking to people who pass by there, yes you are at "Roi Thai restaurant" that is located in the middle of Klong Nin beach. The imageries are symbols of merry and happiness, one is called "Chao Theng" and another is called "Chao Thong". They are characters from the shadow play, one of the folk arts in the southern region. "Whenever these characters is shown on the shadow play, we just laugh even though they don't speak. We would like people who come to our restaurant to get joy and happiness" the owner said. It is a newly opened restaurant, well-known for its delicious Thai Western food integrated with nice decoration which is very prominent from other places.
